

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

DIGITAL INCLUSION FUNDAMENTALS

Full-Day Workshop

Digital technologies are becoming increasingly integral to our public and private lives, and the disadvantages of not being connected are increasing. Discover models and approaches that will help you make sense of digital communication technologies and their role in everyday life, and understand how you can support people to safely and effectively use tech to participate in society, build and maintain relationships, and enhance independence.

What our recent participants have said:

"An excellent, relevant, interesting session which has excited me about how to use technology with my clients." - Participant, UnitingCare West

Contact Katie Curo on 0434 559 564 or service@befriend.org.au