

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

RELATIONSHIP-BUILDING: SCIENCE & STRATEGIES Full-Day Workshop

How can you support people to overcome isolation, develop natural relationships and experience a true sense of connection and inclusion? Learn the science of how people connect, discover an evidence-based framework for enabling the development of relationships, and learn how to apply it to your everyday practice through practical exercises and case studies.

What our recent participants have said:

"The Befriend workshop was excellent. It made me rethink my goals and role as a Support Worker." - Support Worker, Avivo

"The theory really helps to understand how to go about supporting individuals and facilitating relationships." - Support Worker, IdentityWA
